1. BACKGROUND:

It is expected of you to thoroughly read through this document. If there are any questions or queries with regard to the content of this document you can direct it to the coordinator of the M-selection process. If you are satisfied that you understand the outlined process and its implications, you can undersign the document and continue with the selection process.

2. ADMISSION:

2.1 The yearbook of the Faculty of Health sciences states the admission requirements for the MA/Msc in Clinical and Counselling Psychology as follows:

“ Admission and selection requirements of the programme

- a) A honours degree in Psychology or an applicable equivalent qualification is required;
- b) A paper selection based on academic performance, relevant skills and quality of reference reports will be conducted;
- c) A formal selection process based on psychometric evaluation, an individual in-depth interview by a panel of psychologists, a research assignment, evaluation of traits, skills and potential by means of case studies and group work will be conducted;
- d) A final in-depth interview by a selection panel of internal and external psychologists (departmental and internship representatives) will be conducted.
- (e) The results of the psychometric evaluation will be used during the final individual interview as background. There will be no individual feedback to candidates regarding the psychometric evaluation.
- (f) Final approval is subject to a specific research concept within the focus of the subject group.
- (g) The School of Psychosocial Behavioural Sciences is committed to provide a teaching and learning environment that is welcoming, supportive, and accessible to all participants, regardless of ethnicity, culture, nationality, language, disability, gender, sexual orientation, or religion, and to ensure that all students have an equal opportunity for academic success. Our commitment is extended during this selection process.

2.2 The faculty can deny a student admission to a curriculum if the student's standard of competence achieved in previous applicable modules is not sufficient.

2.3 It is the responsibility of the student to:

- a) Acquaint themselves with the closing date and make sure that their applications are received in time. No late applications will be accepted.
- b) To ensure that their applications are complete. No incomplete applications will be considered.
- c) Acquaint themselves with the dates and times of the formal selection procedure.

d) Acquaint themselves with the result of the paper selection as well as the necessary follow-up dates and requirements.

3. SELECTION PROCEDURE:

a) To be part of this process the official University application form as well as the given internal departmental application/selection form must be completed. .

b) After the closing date the applications are processed and a panel is compiled by the coordinator of the MA/Msc Clinical and Counseling selection process to do the paper selection.

c) After the completion of the paper selection the successful candidates are informed that they were selected to take part in the formal selection procedure form 4 - 8 September 2017. If the student doesn't receive any correspondence from the Department of Psychology with regards to the paper selection process, it is his/her own responsibility to find out whether they were successful in the process of paper selection or not.

d) After the completion of the formal selection process, the final successful candidates are announced after the final individual interviews the last day of the formal selection process. Opportunity is given to the students to indicate whether they accept the selection or not.

e) The university is not compelled to fill the spaces if any of the selected candidates indicate that they are not taking up their selected place. The Program coordinator can use his/her own judgment and in collaboration with the selection panel decide to fill the vacant positions.
