

Upcoming Courses in Health Sciences

Do you have a need to upskill yourself in the following Short Learning Programmes?

Applications are open

Adoption as a Specialised Field in Social Work

The first programme, Adoption as a specialised field aims to facilitate an understanding of the Best Interest Principle of the child and addressing the permanency of children where adoption forms part of an integrated approach to Child Protection using different legislation and policies as guiding tool.

Advanced Psychosocial Interventions in Adoption

This is the second short learning programme following on Adoption as a Specialized Field in Social Work and aims to facilitate the advanced knowledge and ability to provide supervision services to adoption social workers in the selection and implementation of methods to effectively execute an adoption.

Coming soon

Coming soon

Advanced Psychosocial Interventions in Inter- country Adoption

The third programme: on Psychosocial Interventions in Inter-country Adoption as Specialized field aims to facilitate adoption using The Children's Act (Act 38 of 2005), The United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child, The Hague convention on Inter-country Adoptions, the DSD International Social Services and Guidelines on Inter-country Adoptions.