MODULES & Module codes:

All the psychology modules are listed here.

Each module has a module code. Psychology modules start with PSYC.

The first number of the code indicates the year level (1 =  $1^{st}$  year) and the second number indicated the semester (2 =  $2^{nd}$  semester).

The complete list of modules that you need to complete to graduate is in your Programme (see next slide).

Credits (Cr): Weight of each module. All the modules count, and you need 396 credits to graduate.

The credit number also indicates the average amount of study hours required to master the content. 1 credit = 10 hours thus 12 credits equals 120 study hours.

Module outcomes

In order to pass a module, you need to master the outcomes. You can find all the module outcomes at the end of the yearbook.

How does it work?

The calendar is presented in table form, with different blocks. You need one module from each block over the course of 3 years in order to graduate. Sometimes you have an option (several modules in one block, from which you choose one), but if there is only one module in a block, it means you have to take that one.

You have 2 majors (Type H), 1 minor and some other compulsory modules (Type X).

Your majors generally allow you to continue with post graduate studies in that field. Therefore, should you not qualify or be selected to continue your studies in psychology, you could still have the option of going further in your 2nd major.

Your 1st major is Psychology (compulsory), which you will have for 3 years.

With the second major you have an option between Sociology (SOCY), Development studies (DEVS) and Population studies and Demography (HPOP)

The majors you choose in your 1st year, should be the ones you do for 3 years if you want to graduate after 3 years. TAKE NOTE: if you are changing your major at any time, it will automatically mean an extra year of studies since you normally need to take a major for 3 consecutive years. Failing certain majors can also result in an extra year, since there are prerequisites for some of the modules - meaning, you will not necessarily be allowed to go on to the next year if you have not passed all the modules for the previous year. This second major will be your 'option 2' or 'back door' should you not get selected to continue with honours in Psychology.

You choose 1 minor in your first year which you need to take for 2 years.

In this block there are 6 modules to choose from: History (HIST 111), Setswana (SETM111), English (ENLL111), French (FREN111), Political Studies (POLI 112), and Development studies (DEVS111). You choose one which you will have for 2 years. Some of these modules are 'school modules' that would give you possible access to PGCE after your degree.

The other compulsory modules include: HCOM117, ALDE111 & ALDE122, WVGW222, WVLS317

PGCE

• If you consider doing a Post Graduate Certificate in Education (PGCE) after completing your degree in order to go into education, take note of the following:

"A student who wants to take the Methodology of Life Orientation must have a combination of Psychology and any one of the following subjects on degree level: Sociology, Human Movement Science, Labour- and Industrial studies, Philosophy, Political Science or Nutrition. Due to the high volume of Life Orientation applications, a cut-off point of 65% average for the highest subject contributing to the Life Orientation methodology is set."

- However, you need another school subject. You can do History, which must be up to 2nd year level, as well as 1 module Geography to qualify for History and Social Sciences. History is an option as minor.
- Or a language, for which you will have to take the 3rd year modules as additional modules since it is only included as a minor, for 2 years.
- "A student who wants to take the Methodology of Languages must have completed it on level 3"

Online Registration

- In this programme, you have several choices to make.
- It is important to go through the options (for example for your 2nd major) carefully, Google it and look at the outcomes BEFORE you start the online registration.
- You will register for BOTH semesters of the 1st year.

eFundi

Once you are registered, you will have access to eFundi.

All your academic information will be communicated via eFundi and details about each module can be found in the Study guide.

Be ready to adapt and to succeed!

- Important to note: Workload will be much more than in school
- Whether you cope, adapt and succeed depends on yourself
- Take responsibility for your work plan, organize, schedule class and work times each day
- Make sure you understand the work, contact the lecturer when uncertain of what's expected
- Make friends with other students who share your goals
- Use every opportunity to learn and develop

Thank you!

Look out for information sessions in February
